

Among many barriers presented by the secretariat, Japan would like to highlight three barriers to prioritize.

1. Lack of sufficient scientific knowledge on marine litter, such as source, flux, risks. Those kind of information should be gained by internationally harmonised methodologies of monitoring.
2. Inadequate management of plastic waste.
3. Lack of awareness of citizens.

Ministry of the Environment, Japan