

Switzerland support the proposal of moving forward in this discussion of the barriers by focusing on governance and its role in the existing barriers, including existing instruments and the question of fragmentation and geographic coverage. More clarity on the role of governance, in particular on the international level, to overcoming the barriers will help us move forward